Masonic Home News

by JAMES H. HEATH

MASONIC HOME May 24—Rites for David Jack, 73, an esteemed member of the Home, dating from June 1, 1931, were held at Hayward, Saturday. The masonic service was conducted by Supt. Hartman and that of the Christian Science by the first reader of the church at Hayward and which included the singing. Burial was in the Masonic cemetery at Decoto. A native of Glasgow, Scotland, Mr. Jack, who is survived by his wife, Mary, came to the United States when three years of age. Part of his schooling was in the well known Lincoln school in San Francisco. For years he was in the cattle business in Nevada. He was a member of McKinley lodge at Richmond, and of Acantha Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star. He was also a Scot, a member of the pyramid of Reno, Nevada.

Death has removed Mrs. Frances C. Mast, whose membership in the Home sponsored by Yosemite lodge at Merced, dates from August 12, 1912. Although listed in the official records of the grand lodge as 92, Mrs. Mast claimed to be five years older. At any rate she was the oldest woman member of the Home family and in the passing of these 25 years she has been held in high esteem by the numerous residents as they have come and gone.

The rites were conducted by Supt. Hartman.

A highly enjoyable entertainment was brought to the home Friday evening by Indian Rock lodge in Berkeley, featuring the Berkeley Men's Cappella Choir of male voices, sponsored by the Berkeley Y. M. C. A., Theodore T. Gorbach, M. A., Director.

By request of the visitors music for the dance, following the entertainment was furnished by the Masonic Home orchestra in which a new member of the home, Louis Hirsch made his bow as a member of the veterans musical organization, playing a French horn. Mr. Bradley, home gardener, although not a member of the home, "filled in" with his clarinet. The music was highly complimented by the Berkeley boosters.

Sunday afternoon the home was pleased to greet the officers and members of Aloha Chapter of the Eastern Star, San Francisco, in the chapter's annual visit. The guests were headed by Marian Buskirk, Worthy Matron and Max Mertens, Worthy Patron. The visit did not include entertainment features.

Sunday afternoon, also, was the annual visit of San Francisco Chapter of the Order of the De Molay, with 12 of the members clad in the beautiful robes of the order present. Morris Katz, Master Councilor was in charge. The chapter staged an impressive Mother's Day program. Remarks were made by Beverly Fisher, Senior Advisor.

At the close of the service, home members were pleased to hear Mrs. Virginia Lord, home vocalist in an attractive group of five songs, with piano accompaniment by Miss Anderson of San Francisco.
